<sup>1</sup> For additional fees related to these accounts, including those imposed for covering overdrafts created by checks, in-person withdrawals, internal debits and transfers or other electronic means, please refer to our Miscellaneous Service Fees for Personal, Commercial and Corporate Accounts. Applicant must be a citizen or resident alien of the United States (U.S.) who is at least 18 years old with a valid U.S. taxpayer identification number.

<sup>2</sup> At our discretion, we may change the interest rate and the annual percentage yield on the account at any time. Interest begins to accrue no later than the business day we receive credit for the deposit of noncash items (for example, checks). If you close your account before interest is credited, you will not receive the accrued interest. We use the daily balance method to calculate interest on the account. This method applies a daily periodic rate to the principal in the account each day.

<sup>3</sup> You may make no more than six preauthorized withdrawals, preauthorized transfers for overdraft protection, automatic or telephone transfers, checks, drafts, and debit card or other similar transactions from your account per statement cycle.

<sup>4</sup> Early withdrawal penalties apply to CDs. For additional fees related to these accounts, please refer to our Miscellaneous Service Fees for Personal, Commercial and Corporate Accounts. Interest begins to accrue on the business day we receive credit for the deposit of noncash items. You may not make deposits into or withdrawals from your account until the maturity date. CDs can have single maturity or automatic renewal at the maturity date.

If the automatic renewal feature is selected, you will have 10 calendar days after maturity to withdraw funds without penalty. For additional information and terms related to this account, please refer to the rate chart provided at account opening.
